PUBLIC COMMENTARY –

- Ms. Anita Bedell – Illinois Church Action on Alcohol and Addiction Problems
I wanted to compliment you for the new design of your web site and thank you for your efforts to make the monthly video gambling reports more interactive for the public.

At the June Illinois Video Gambling meeting, we learned that a bowling alley had been denied a renewal of a video gambling license because they failed to maintain a State of Illinois Liquor License. We applaud you for that decision.

What is the board's policy when staff/investigations find that a video gambling establishment has an expired State liquor license? Do you notify the Illinois Liquor Control Commission? Do you shut the video gambling machines off so betting cannot occur in an establishment?

I called the Illinois Liquor Control Commission about this license and they said their computers don't flag a license until the license is 30 days overdue. Was Offie's selling alcohol without a valid liquor license for the 23 days?

A liquor license is a privilege, not a right. The video Gambling Act required bars, restaurants, fraternal and veteran's organizations to have a valid retail liquor license to serve alcohol on premises before they can apply for a video gambling license. Now many business owners are seeking a liquor license just so they can have video gambling.

When the Video Gambling Act was passed in 2009, the sponsors assured Legislatures, the law would be strictly regulated by the Illinois Gaming Board.

We are concerned that other Video Gambling establishments will become lax in renewing their liquor licenses if the penalties are not more severe-large fine, suspension of video gambling license. I ask that you work with the Liquor Control Commission and also develop a policy for stopping businesses from conducting video gambling without a valid liquor license.

- Frank Vrchota – Illinois Operators, Inc.

Mr. Vrchota addressed the Board. He was requesting permission from the Board to be a licensed video terminal operator and a licensed video location. Chairman Jaffe explained to him that it's the language in the legislation that states the rules and not the Board.
